A Royal Review

On Sunday December 22, 1912, The Sunday Times reported;

“One of the finest hotels in the State is the Royal, which is situated at the corner of Wellington and William streets, Perth. Not only is it one of the most imposing structures in the metropolitan area, but it is as well-furnished as it is handsome in outside appearance, and it is splendidly conducted by W. H. Jones. At this magnificent residential hostelry a specialty is made of the bottle department, which compares favorably with any hotel in the Commonwealth. Every description of whiskies, brandies, gins, rums and wines is stocked, as well as English ales and stouts and colonial-ditto. They are sold at especially low rates, and country clients are specially catered for. A glance at the condensed price list should convince anyone that there is not a better place in Western Australia whereat to buy "bottled joy" than at the Royal.”

Coming into modern times, we've moved away from serving just English ales and stouts. Nevertheless, we continue to serve the good old fashioned bottles of joy — that has never changed.
